Kennedy Sees Harvard Tie; Dartmouth Keeps Win Skein

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Unbeaten Harvard's John Hartman and Ed Malmstrom of Columbia matched field goals before No. 1 Crimson alumnus President John F. Kennedy and settled for a 3-3 Ivy League football tie after a frustrating fourth quarter Saturday.

President Kennedy made an impromptu appearance shortly after the kickoff. The President and his aides took 50-yard line seats high on the side of his alma mater while the Harvard hand played "Hail to the Chief."

Harvard fullback Bill Grana apparently had scored the tie-breaking touchdown four minutes before the finish but he fumbled diving over the goal line. Columbia's Gene Thompson scooped up the loose ball in the end zone and it was ruled a touchback.

HANOVER, N.H. (AP)—Unbeaten Dartmouth, given its scare of the season by winless Holy Cross, applied its successful offensive formula in the fourth quarter to defeat the Crusaders 13-3 Saturday and preserve major college football's longest victory streak.

The Indians started their victory dance at their own 42 and needed only nine plays for the score. Quarterback Dana Kelly shot a 12-yard scoring pass to halfback Bob O'Brien on a play that saw the ball go from O'Brien to Kelly and back to O'Brien.

Dartmouth, extending its winning skein to 15 games, punched a touchdown over in the second period after the Crusaders from Worcester, Mass., held the game on even terms throughout the first quarter.

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—Cosmo Iacavazzi, Princeton's spectacular fullback, hurred over for two touchdowns, and Don McKay, his tailback teammate, scored one and passed for another in the Tigers' surprising 42-0 romp over previously unbeaten Colgate Saturday.

It was the fourth straight victory for the undefeated Tigers who handed the Red Raiders their most lopsided defeat in the 17-year rivalry between the two schools. Princeton had been only a 6½ point favorite.

Pontiac Pilot Captures Pole For 400 Race

(Continued From Page 1C) HUNTINGTON (AP)—After a sluggish first half performance, Marshall University came to life and mowed down Kentucky State 28-0 for its third straight football victory Saturday night.

The three-game winning streak is the longest since the Big Green won six in a row in 1957 and brings Marshall's record to 3-1-1. The loss was Kentucky State's second in five games.

It was not until the last minute of the first half that Marshall was able to score. The Big Green recovered a State fumble on the Thorobreds' 23. Marshall pushed to the 1 and Al Rinehart plunged over for the score.

In the third quarter Marshall went 64 yards in seven plays, with Jim Brown scampering the last 14 for a touchdown.

Mahone Goes 41
Halfback Jack Mahone, who turned in a fine performance, dashed 41 yards for a touchdown in the fourth period, and Brown scored again when he took a pass from reserve quarterback Alex Sansosti and went 30 yards for the touchdown.

Mahone carried the ball 19 times for 137 yards, more than Kentucky State gained on the ground and through the air. The 5-11, 185-pound halfback from Charleston also caught three passes for 25 yards.

Green Gains 415
The Big Green gained 308 yards on the ground and 107 by passing for a total of 415.

The Thorobreds, whose deepest penetration into Marshall territory was to the 32, gained 56 yards rushing and 50 in the air.

Big Green Coach Charlie Snyder sent in his reserves in the fourth period and Sansosti, taking over from quarterback

OHIO UNIV. IS BEATEN

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Halfback Mike Brown scored two touchdowns Saturday as unbeaten Delaware outclassed Ohio University 29-12.

The high-riding Blue Hens, considered the top small college power in the East, pushed over two first quarter touchdowns and were never headed in chalking up their fourth consecutive triumph.

IRISH ROLL ON

Catholic Stays Unbeaten By Blasting Nitro, 39-14

By Thomas A. Knight
The Fighting Irish were the Flying Irish Saturday night. They passed and ran with their feet hardly touching Laidley Field to defeat luckless Nitro, 39-14.

Once again the dizzying performance of Charleston Catholic's precision backfield and crushing line brought the Irish their seventh straight victory this season and 17th in a row without a loss.

It was a fitting wreath with which to crown their homecoming queen, Miss Mary Jo Foster, and to lay before a Mothers Night crowd of about 4,000.

Quarterback Dave Boyle out-did himself.

FIRST HE slipped over right guard from four yards out for Catholic's opening touchdown with 2:44 left in the first period.

Then, in order, he tossed one pass to Halfback Terry Smoot for a 32-yard touchdown, lifted another to Fullback Jim Irving for a 43-yard score, and rifled a third to Halfback Frank Crinti for another 43-yard TD.

Crinti's touchdowns came with 8:15 remaining in the third period, after Catholic held a 20-0 intermission lead, and Irving ended the first string's romp with a dazzling 32-yard dance into the end zone.

Irving crashed over right tackle, plunged and spun through an almost solid Wildcat secondary and suddenly found his path free for a touchdown.

Nitro was no slouch, but the Wildcats didn't have the punch when they needed it Saturday night.

It wasn't until the Irish regulars left the field after Irving's TD that halfback Ralph Lucas finally crossed into the end zone from one yard away for Nitro with 8:56 left in the fourth quarter.

THIS ENDED a 57-yard drive in 14 plays. The next Wildcat TD came in 11 plays over 77 yards with Lucas again doing the honors from five yards out.

Squeezed in between was another Catholic surprise, a two-yard touchdown run by Quarterback Jim Esposito after six plays over 28 yards following a 22-yard punt return by End Mark Robinson.

Nitro almost scored one other time in the opening minutes of the game when Fullback Rick Fontz picked up an Irish fumble and raced 61 yards to the Catholic six before Smoot finally tagged him opt.

But the Wildcats couldn't cash in.

Then the romp began and the next times the Irish got their hands on the ball they scored to capture their half-time margin and a sure vision of victory.

Catholic crushed Nitro in first downs, 27-12, and in total net yards gained, 450-233.

Buffalo Gets 7th Win, 53-0

BUFFALO — Buffalo celebrated its homecoming and the dedication of a new scoreboard by trouncing Glenville, 53-0, here Saturday night.

It was the seventh straight win for the unbeaten Bisons, who are rated first among the state's Class A teams.

Buddy Peayt, Tom Casto and Dean Allen scored two touchdowns apiece for the Bisons.

Buffalo has won 12 consecutive games over a two-year span and is unbeaten in its last 17—two tie games entering into the streak.

It was the Bison defense that turned the game into a rout. Buffalo got two of its touchdowns directly from defensive efforts—on a pass interception and a blocked punt.

Pacing the Bison defense were Kenny Rollins, Tom Harold and George Hill.

Huskies' Win Over Man Led By Andersons

MAN — The Andersons, Fred and Tom, while not being brothers, play football together like they are.

Tom scored two touchdowns and Fred passed for three to lead Herbert Hoover to a 33-13 victory over Man Saturday night.

Tom scored on a 23 yard run and caught a 25 yard pass from Fred for the other six points. Fred passed 10 yards to Jim Jett and 20 to Steve Proctor for scores.

Larry Maynor scampered 14 yards for Hoover's other touchdown.

The victory was the third in a row for the improving Huskies after dropping four straight.

Hoover built up a 33-0 lead before Man scored twice in the final period on runs by John Blevens and Harman McCoy.

Hampden-Sydney Comeback Victim

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY, Va.—Quarterback Torry Confer drove Western Maryland 81 yards in the last 1½ Saturday for a 15-12 Mason Dixon Conference football victory over a Hampden-Sydney team that dominated everything but the final score.

Tom scored on a 23 yard run and caught a 25 yard pass from Fred for the other six points. Fred passed 10 yards to Jim Jett and 20 to Steve Proctor for scores.

Larry Maynor scampered 14 yards for Hoover's other touchdown.

The victory was the third in a row for the improving Huskies after dropping four straight.

Hoover built up a 33-0 lead before Man scored twice in the final period on runs by John Blevens and Harman McCoy.
